Press Release: Amer Sports Selects SIS NW for Accounts Payable Mailroom Automation

SIS NW announced that Amer Sports, a leading sporting goods company has selected SIS NW to provide automated mailroom solutions for accounts payable processing. The partnership will help Amer Sports reduce labor costs, improve efficiency, and increase savings.

Seattle Washington- June 17 2015 – Spectrum Information Services NW, INC (SIS NW – www.sisnwinc.com) a leading provider in automating paper processes, announced that Amer Sports (www.amersports.com), a world renowned sporting goods company has executed an agreement with SIS NW to automate mailroom operations for accounts payable processing. SIS NW provides world class document management solutions focused on automating paper based processes. Amer Sports is a Finland based sporting goods company whose brands include Wilson, Arc'teryx, Salomon, Atomic, Precor, Mavic, Suunto, and DeMarini.

Amer Sports has worldwide recognition and global sales in over 34 countries. The decision made by Amer Sports to choose SIS NW for their automated mailroom solutions was won against stiff competition from leading document management companies in North America.

REDUCED LABOR COSTS

Under the agreement, SIS NW will provide mailroom services to automate Amer Sports accounts payable processing. SIS NW will process incoming mail, add metadata identification to documents, and initiate a workflow process to approve vendor invoices for payment. The solution will reduce labor requirements and make it possible to maximize vendor prompt payment discounts.

“We expect to realize substantial savings” commented Grzegorz Szopa, PtP Manager for Amer Sports Financial Shared Services. “In addition, we anticipate a reduction in labor costs. Amer Sports currently has 40 people processing invoices.”

The partnership will also provide additional benefits that improve efficiency, lower operational costs, and improve vendor relations.

SIS NW provides an unparalleled level of automated mailroom services and works closely with vendors, partners and clients to ensure that invoice processing is timely and accurate.

Automated mailroom solutions from SIS NW provide:

- increased productivity – more invoices processed with less staff
- Increased savings – eliminate the need to hire additional staff
- Improved performance – maximize prompt payment discounts
- Improved customer service – better vendor communication

Businesses from a myriad of different sectors including healthcare, insurance, employee benefits, loan processors, and many others have relied on the reliability, efficiency, and convenience of automated mailrooms provided by SIS NW for more than a decade. With standard use of the latest technology and adhering to compliance regulations, SIS NW ensures safe and secure processing of all invoices and important documents. This agreement between SIS NW and Amer Sports demonstrates that businesses from all sectors can benefit from an automated mailroom solution to help them improve efficiency and reduce labor costs.

Glenn Odell, President of SIS NW commented: "We are excited and proud that Amer Sports selected SIS NW over a number of competitors. Amer Sports informed us that the technical pre-sales support we provided and our experience with other mailroom automation solutions helped them feel confident that we could handle their volumes and challenging technical requirements. We're very pleased to welcome them as a client".
